

Mitchell's Store, Waynesville, in 1908. H. L. or Harry "Cat" Mitchell is at left, leaning on post.

Jim Lee Mitchell, age 14, on Tony the horse in front of Cat's filling station, 1934.

H. L. "Cat" Mitchell, Nora Mitchell, Jim L. Mitchell at old filling station and old lunch stand 1938; original Cat's (across from J. H. Mackey Associates (engineers) was established in 1923.

The morning after the Bank of Waynesville was robbed, June 22, 1917. See last year's Gazette for an exciting account of the event.

The first modern Old Settlers Day was held August 8, 1981. One of the attractions that first year was a hot air balloon in which visitors could take a tethered flight for a panoramic view of the festivities.

All photos on this page courtesy of Jim Mitchell.