

Pulaski Pioneers If you have read some of Pulaski County's history, some of the following names will be familiar to you. Pictured outside the new courthouse ca. 1905 are: (Front Row, left to right) Eph Bales (father of James Howard Bales), A. B. Brown, unknown, Jewell, unknown, Roa Curtis, Marion Brownfield. (Back Row, left to right) Lunsford York, Bud Carmack, G. R. Gan, Mr. Turner (father of Jop Turner), Jim Lewis, Charlie, George (father of Raymond George), Lee Trower, unknown, Bill Long, J. R. Burchard (Walter's father), Dick Skaggs, William Bradford. Courtesy of Jim and Dickie Bales.

Pawpaw Daze

&

Swap Meet

Come on down to the Pawpaw
Patch

Waynesville City Park
and
Historic Courthouse Square
Downtown Waynesville

Saturday
September 24th
2005

9:00 AM - 4:00 PM
SPONSORED BY PLANTERS OF PULASKI COUNTY
AND
THE OLD STAGECOACH STOP FOUNDATION

Old Stagecoach Stop Foundation's Heritage Ornament Series

- ◆ Old Stagecoach Stop ca 1880
- ◆ Fort Wood Main Gate ca 1950
- ◆ Old Courthouse 1903
- ◆ Devil's Elbow Cafe ca 1930

Each Ornament $6.00 each
Set of Four Heritage Ornaments $20.00

Size: Approx. 5" x 3"

Available at the Old Stagecoach Stop

By Mail: ($2.00 S/H)

Heritage Ornaments, 10925 Western Road, Duke, MO 65461

