From the Editors:

Welcome to the 2015 edition of the Old Settlers Gazette. This is the twelfth issue published by the Old Stagecoach Stop Foundation. It was more than a decade ago that the new owners of radio station KJPW decided to let us try our hand at publishing the tabloid in conjunction with Old Settlers Day. We continue to be very grateful for the opportunity.

This issue is made possible by the advertisers herein. The ad revenue not only makes a free issue possible, but it also provides funds that help maintain Pulaski County's oldest publicly accessible building—the Old Stagecoach Stop House Museum.

Cover. Old Stagecoach Stop volunteers recreate an outing scene at Gourd Creek Cave, a popular Phelps County gathering place in the early 1900s.
