Both photos showing the Big Stone Hardware wagon train pre-date the devastating 1913 Dixon fire. Here the wagons are parked in front of the old VFW building, Dake and Sons and the Dixon Market. The buildings on the far right all the way to the downtown corner were all destroyed by fire in 1913. (Photo courtesy of Earl and Anna Roberts-From the late Mae Howard collection)
