

Pulaski County Bankers Association meeting in Crocker in 1929. (Photo courtesy of Gordon Warren)

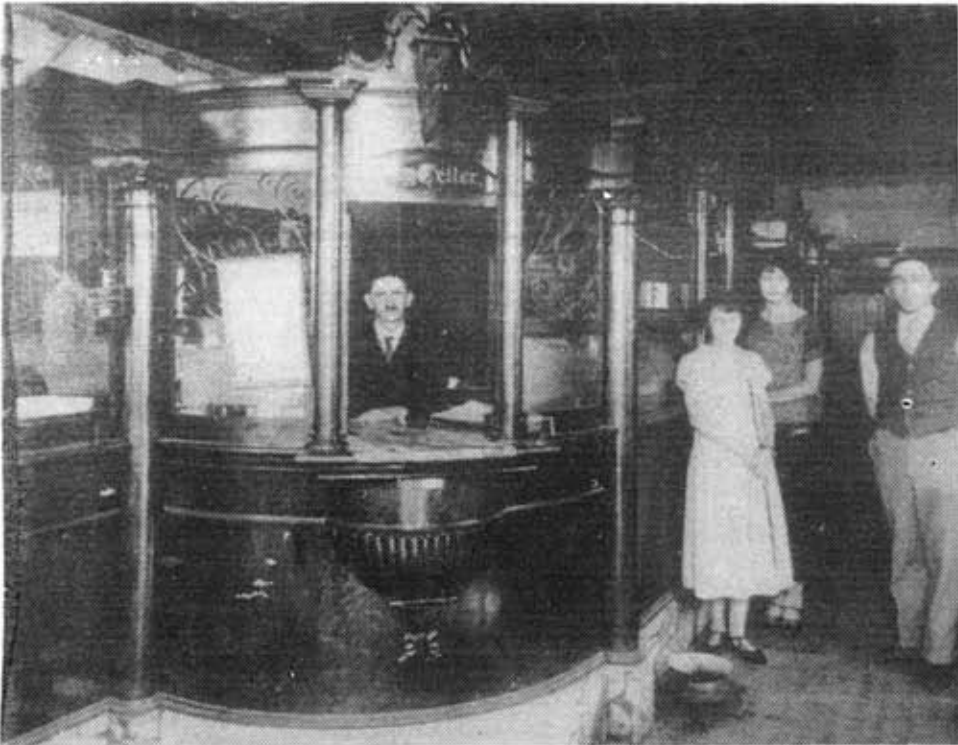

Robert Wadlow is listed in the Book of World Records as the tallest man in the world. Wadlow is shown in a promotional appearance in front of H.E. Warren's store in downtown Richland. Warren's store sold the brand of shoes that Wadlow was promoting. (Photo courtesy of Margaret Warren)

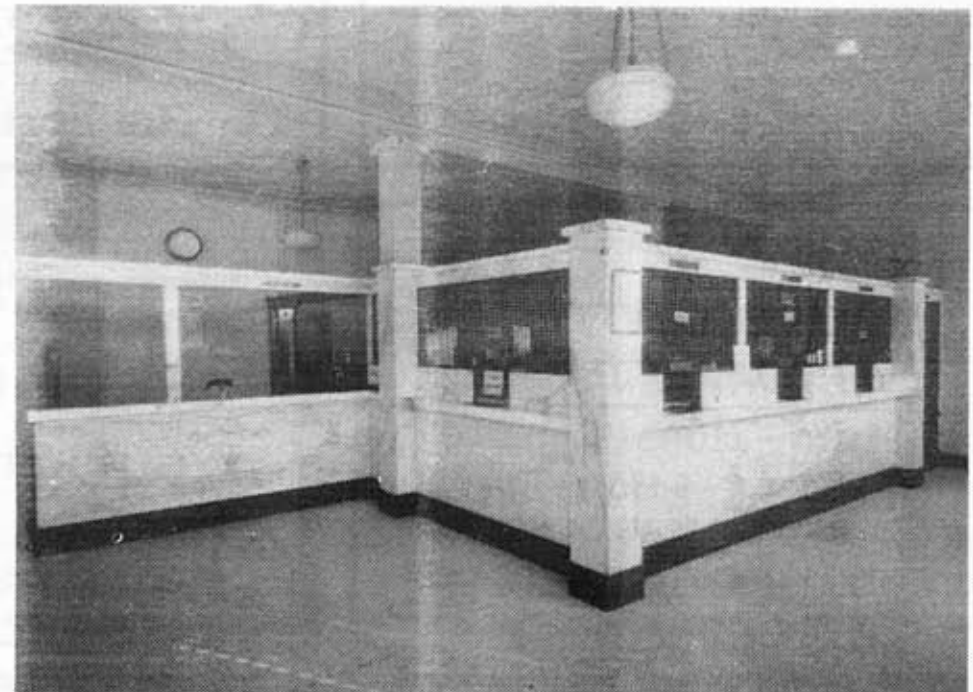

Richland class of 1913 (Photo courtesy of Gordon Warren)

The Jenny Murphey Millinery Store. The store bought hat bodies and they would have showings in the spring and ladies could go to the store for ribbons, bows, flowers and feathers to trim the hats. Pictured is Dr. Henry C. Murphey's wife. The store was located on McClurg Avenue in Richland. (Photo courtesy of Gordon Warren)

Boatmen's Bank in 1917 (Photo courtesy of Gordon Warren)

Pulaski County Bank bought the fixtures from the Clayton Missouri Bank that failed during the depression and moved them into the bank in Richland located where Stockstill Pharmacy now sits. When the new bank was built some of the marble was salvaged and is now in the home of Gordon Warren. (Photo courtesy of Gordon Warren)