

In The Good Old Summertime

Greetings from JEROME, Missouri

Swimmers in a pastoral setting on the river at Jerome in the Roaring Twenties. The postmark on the back of the card was dated August 9, 1927. Courtesy of Phelps County Historical Society.

"We're right in the swim," reads the message on this card labeled, "Scene at Jerome, Mo. Date unknown." Courtesy of the Phelps County Historical Society.

Luther York, Earl Foster, and Fred York are ready to have some fun. Photo courtesy of Ruby Fields.

Richland town baseball squad sometime around 1940. (Front, left to right)-- Unidentified, Paul Newberry, Lloyd Earl Burnett, Unidentified, Delton Hooker, and Unidentified. (Back, left to right)-- Keith Warren, Unidentified, Max Henry, J.R. Lankford, Kenneth Cowan, Alvah Hillhouse, Roy Salsman, and Unidentified.

Den Shultz, Charlie Thompson, Arthur Fields, and Lee Thompson hame it up for the camera on Kentucky Avenue, St. Louis, in 1923. Photo courtesy of Ruby Fields.